An Unparalleled Challenge

The classic race between the tortoise and the hare returns in modern verse.

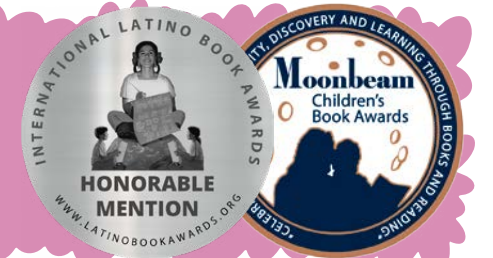

When the agreed time came to pass,
Seeing her rival in a cap so neat,
The hare exclaimed with a laugh:
“But she can’t possibly compete!”

The Hare and the Tortoise

A new and speedy visitor has arrived in the peculiar forest. To her surprise, no one accepts her challenge to a race. No one?

Not quite. The most unexpected runner steps forward to take on the challenge. Can the slow and clumsy tortoise keep pace with the swift hare? The entire forest is watching. Ready, set... go!

Thoughtful Follow-Up

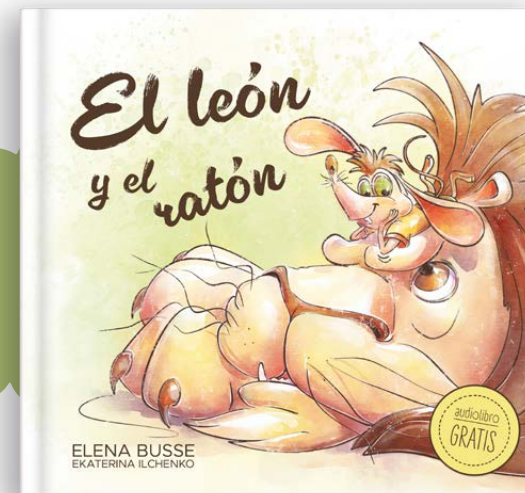

The Hare and the Tortoise concludes with activities that encourage reflection and creative expression, perfect for children's intellectual and emotional development.

An Unlikely Friendship

The unique relationship between the lion and the mouse comes to life in modern verse.

Beneath the night's sheen,
Peering here and there,
With hunter's eyes so keen,
He dashed without a care.

The grasshopper wakes up to a radiant summer day. But what is that hardworking ant doing? Is she crazy?

"Work? I'd much rather sing and rest under the warm sun!" the grasshopper declares. But when winter arrives with a sudden storm, she finds herself cold and lost. The grasshopper can only cry out: "Help!"

Post-Reading Challenge

The story extends beyond the last page with activities that encourage children to analyze and reflect on what they have read.

The Perfect Trap

The timeless fable of the fox and the crow is reimagined in modern verse.

If flattery should come your way,
Take heed of what they say.
For honeyed words might hide a plot:
Be wise and doubt a lot.
